Those Were The Days ...

THOSE WERE THE DAYS WHEN FRIENDS WERE TRUSTED, BUT NOW THINGS HAVE CHANGED; MEMORIES HAVE RUSTED.

FRENOSHAS CAN LAST FOREVER AND LONGER. TIME WEAKENS SOME,

AS THE HOWAS PASS BY. A BYZGEZE SCATTERS DUST. THE HOURS BECOME DAYS, THE BREEZE TURNS TO GUSTS.

THE DUST COVERS NEMBORS AND ALL THOUGHT OF RETURN TO THE DAYS THAT WE LOVED; OUR THOUGHTS WILL SOON BE

THE PHIN OF FOUD MEMORIES WILL HIMDER US ALL. ALTHOUGH THEY'LL BE CHERISHED MANY TEMES WILL STILL FACE.

OUR FRIENDS AME ALL SPECIAL IN INDIVIDUAL WAYS . BUT MAKES OTHERS STRONGER. NOW THOUGHTS OF THEM BURN. "THOSE WE'RE THE DAYS." RHOWNA WILDURN

May 14, 1978 Is 'Big Day' For Seniors

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." This was the motto for the Seniors of 1978.

In September, the girls won the powder-puff game to succeed in becoming the only class to win it as both juniors and seniors. December brought the Christmas tree tradition in which the class participated. Although 46 left midterm, the class didn't lose their spirit. At the sectional pep session, they showed their unity by building the winning pyramid for the second consecutive year.

The classmates will head their separate ways, but the memories and friendships that they've made will stay with them forever.

Long Awaited Senior Year Coming Soon

127 juniors began to get jumpy as they prepared for their final senior year at NHS

The most exciting part of the junior year was their 1978 prom

Juniors spent an estimated $1100 from the $1200 they helped the school earn by selling magazine subscriptions. The juniors ranked 1st in selling the subscriptions.

The band Abacus played the theme song for the prom, "The Way I Feel Tonight," April 29th at the Lee's Inn

Bonnie Combs stated, "The class of '79' brings me surprises every year."

Sophomores Treasure Class Rings 4-Ever

The class of 1980: Two of the main events of their sophomore year was getting their class rings and drivers licenses after their teachers "enjoyed" a summer of teaching them.

It was a thrill for the sophomores to see the familiar faces of their athletic buddies on the floor participating in the B-team and some in the varsity sports

They had taken a big step in their lives as a student at NHS and most made the best of it

Sophomore Terry Legear stated, "I'm really honored to be in the sophomore class and to be representing the class as a cheerleader."

Class of '82: About 1,540 School Hours Left

One of the largest classes ever to stampede through the halfs of NHS was the eighth graders.

The class of '82 consisted of 182 students as they completed their last year of junior high.

Required subjects for the class were English, math, social studies, and science.

Elective subjects were home economics or industrial arts; band or the 12 week course of art, music, and physical education.

Knights Gridders Show Much Improvement

Although the Knights gridders finished the season with only one win out of ten games. Coach David Lower commented "Though the record doesn't show it, we were a varsity improved team, defensively. Our offense never really generated many points, nor did it maintain ball control." He went on to say, "we averaged nine or more turnovers per game."

The team placed seventh in the conference. A few key players for the Knights were leading sophomore running back, Eric Sittloh; junior all conference ineman, Jeff Wise; and seniors Kenny Oler, end and punter and Keith Coddington at split end

The team had a total of 27 lettermen, with 16 returning next season

Eric Sittloh led the Knights in both rushing and scoring with a total of 791 yards and 28 points. Chris Lahmann scored three TD's for 18 points. The leading receiver, Keith Coddington, made 15 catches for 226 yards

Looking Good For Returning NHS Thinlies

This year's varsity cross country team showed highlights of what could be a conference winning team next year

Several outstanding athletes were Seniors D. Frame, and E Webster; Junior T. Frame, Sophomores D. Thurston, and J. Frame. Most outstanding was Joe Ladd, who set a new course record and placed 18th in the sectional

Coach Warvel was quoted as saying, "For a young team they did exceptionally well."

Red Rawlings Racks Up A 8-1 Season

"Our eighth graders slated an 8-1 season and were strong again this year. I was also very pleased with the seventh grade. They lost their first two meets but came back to win six of their last seven," stated Mike Rawlings, jr. high cross country coach.

Performing well for the young Knights were R. Snipe, J Ryan, and R. Gabbard from the eighth grade. Coach Rawlings commented that the eighth graders ability to run in a pack was their strength. In the seventh grade Todd Barker and Rusty Gabbard were the best runners

The junior varsity volleyball squad marked a 4-5 season Coach Barb Bader also had the task of coaching these girls. She commented, "This team was very young this year. Most of them should return next year."

The top performer for the team was Verlinda Toschlog Coach Bader stated, "Verlinda began the year as a starter. By mid-season she had earned a starting position on the varsity squad. "Leah Freeland was a very hard worker, her performance was usually very consistant," stated Bader. She finished by saying "Rhonda Herron was strongest on serving."

Varsity Boys Show Improvement Toward

"During the last half of the year the team kept improving and played better than most people expected," commented Jim Fletcher, varsity basketball coach. The team finished the season at 5-16. Seven of the ten lettermen will return

Leaders in scoring were Mike Seal with 10 8 per game, Mark Johnson, Steve Esarey, and Tony Valant followed with 10 6 10 3, and 9 3 respectively. Eric Sittloh led in rebounds with 127, Valant with 120, and Esarey with 114

Mark Johnson led in assists with 98, just missing the season record

In closing Coach Fletcher commented that this was "my most enjoyable year as a varsity coach."

Those Were The Days . . .

Well, once again the year has come to an end and another yearbook has been completed it has been a hard and treacherous year because of the blizzard of '77 and the coal crunch but the highlights of the school year have been captured with pictures and words

Molded by Mr. C.

At the beginning, 12 unexperienced journalists entered Room 6 and were molded together by our great advisor, Mr Cole. I think he had his doubts about us at the beginning but we proved him wrong. I must say that without the help, supervision, and guidance of him this yearbook would have never happened, and for this I would like to thank him

'78 LANCE best ever

As for the rest of the staff, there would not be a yearbook These people put a lot of hard work, time, and dedication into making the '78 LANCE the best ever. Without the photographers, editors, and their staff helpers, those special moments of those special days would have surpassed us

Thank you's

I wish I had the room to thank each of the staff members separately, but since I am cramped for room I will just have to thank them as a group Thank you very much for all the hard work and time

There were some people who did some work for the book that weren't a part of the staff that I would like to thank Those people are Mary Tice, Kenny Jenkins, Jeff Wise, and Glen Fodale for either their art work or lettering. To Rhonna Wilburn goes a special thanks for the poem

Remember the moments

All of the moments that we, have captured in this book will always be remembered by me and I hope by you too, because, "Those Were The Days."
